

WLPCS

Nomen: CLAVIS

Aetas:
Dies:

Lots of Deponent Verb Practice #3 - Wheelock 34 / Oxford 36 (containing, all indicative tenses and present subjunctive)

Translate! Pay very close attention to TENSE and MOOD.

Here are some new words for you:

nascor, nasci, natus sum = to be born hortor, hortari, hortatus sum = to urge, encourage

I will urge - hortabor

they may try - conentur you had comforted - consolata/us eras

Y'all may be born - nascamini verēri - to fear

labitur - s/he/it slips labamur - Let's slip // we may/should slip hortatae sumus - we urged she may be suffering - patiatur she was suffering - patiebatur they had encouraged - hortati/ae erant

I may comfort - consoler he had seemed - visus erat morati sunt - They delayed pati - to suffer

labaris - you may slip oriamini - Y'all may rise

locuti - having spoken (participle)

veriti - having feared veriti sunt - They feared they will follow - sequentur

Y'all encourage - hortamini hortabuntur - They will encourage nascamini - Y'all may be born nascimini - Y'all are born nascemini - Y'all will be born nati sumus - we were born having entered (sing, fem.) - ingressa to exit - egredi

we should exit - egrediamur