

16. The tense of effugerent (line 15) is
a. imperfect
c. perfect
b. pluperfect
d. present
17. The unexpressed noun in agreement with nactus (line 15) is
a. Commius
c. the cavalry
b. Caesar
d. Atrebas
18. The phrase in acie (line 17) is translated
a. in battle formation
c. in the camp
b. on the ridge
d. before the camp
19. In line 17 diutius is
a. an adjective
c. a noun
b. a perfect passive participle
d. an adverb
20. In lines 17–18 we learn that
a. the enemy routed Caesar's troops
c. reinforcements arrived from Gaul
b. the enemy fled
d. the ships were repaired 21. The word that joins tanto (line 19) to form a correlative pair is
a. quantum (line 19)
c. secuti (line 19)
b. spatio (line 19)
d. cursu (line 19)
22. The dictionary entry for viribus (line 19) is
a. vir
c. vis
b. viridus
d. vix
23. In line 19 complures refers to
a. the Romans
c. the horses
b. the Britons
d. the buildings
24. In line 20 deinde is translated
a. when
c. but
b. then
d. nevertheless
25. In lines 21–22 we learn that
a. Caesar sent for reinforcements
c. the Britons asked for peace
b. the legates all died
d. Caesar sent the legates away