Individual Work (Part I)

1. Reread the section (p. 54-55, from “Reflect now, Socrates” to “We must, Socrates.”).
2. What is the main point of the first paragraph?

3. What is the main point of the second paragraph?

Partner Work

4. With your partner, read your responses aloud to the Individual Work. As a pair, come to agreement about the main point of each paragraph. Then, choose a sentence from the first paragraph that best represents the main point of the paragraph. Write that sentence here.

Choose a sentence from the second paragraph that best represents the main point of the paragraph. Write that sentence here.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

5. With your partner, write an opening question that you would use to start a discussion on the reading with your class.

Why would this question be a good one to start a discussion with your class?

Individual Work (Part II)

6. Choose two reasons the Laws give for why Socrates would not be treating them rightly by planning to escape from prison. For each, explain whether the reason is good and/or convincing.
